JOSEPH E. CAMPBELL

DEFENDANT

RESPONSE TO MOTION FOR PSYCHIATRIC EXAMINATION

Comes the Defendant, Joseph Campbell, through his attorney, Jeff Rosenzweig, and for his Response states:

1. He has no objection to the government's motion. He specifically agrees with the government's position that he be allowed to self-report to the assigned institution.

2. He agrees that the period of time regarding the examination is an excluded period for purposes of speedy trial, and that the trial should be delayed.

WHEREFORE, Campbell prays that a psychiatric examination be ordered and that other proceedings in this case be stayed pending the examination.
